

NNRH AUXILIARY HEARTLINE NEWS

Elko and Spring Creek

March 2004

When you are finished changing, you're finished.

Benjamin Franklin

Magazines

Please help keep the waiting areas supplied with magazines and books. They are read all the time and taken home to finish. Please bring them to the mailroom to be distributed.

We need more paperback books. They are well liked and disappear rapidly.

March Meeting

9:am on Thursday the 11th in the NNRH classroom.

Gift Shop

Clerks are still needed for the Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon shift, 3 to 6. Jane Stevens is trying to cover these hours but needs help. Please consider helping or train to be a substitute. Call Jane Stevens at 738-4488 for more details.

Saint Patrick's gifts and other new spring items are on the shelves. Come in and see them.

Arlene, Get Well Soon!!

Nursing Scholarships

The recipients of the eight nursing scholarships, Judy Bondo and Pat Tempel had their picture taken on the 23rd. Look for it to be published in the Free Press soon.

CARE Closet

The 44 stuffed animals from The Presbyterian Women are disappearing quickly from the CARE closet. They are well liked and used frequently for patients.

The new Flower Power flowers are beautiful and are ready to be used as needed.

ER Duds Closet

Check out this closet on the 3rd floor. Terry and Glenna have things well organized and looking good. "Thanks for your hard work, Terry and Glenna!"

New Members

Welcome!!

Rebecca Snyder and Sonya Anchondo. You will be seeing them working in the Gift Shop soon.
